GEOGRAPHY

Consolidate subject knowledge through interactive revision strategies and practice exam papers in preparation for your final exams in Geography.

Analyse a geographical issue at a range of scales, consider and select a suitable option in relation to the issue and justify your decision

Reflect on the idea there are global variations in economic development and quality of life and be familiar with strategies to reduce the development gap

Investigate how the UK has a range of different coastal landscapes and is shaped by a number of physical processes

FINAL GCSE EXAMS | EXAM REVISION | Paper 3 - Issues Evaluation preparation | The Changing Economic World | UK landscapes-Coasts | YEAR 11

Investigate how natural hazards pose major risks to people and property

Study how food, water and energy are fundamental to human development

Understand how urban growth creates opportunities and challenges

Study how fluvial landforms create distinctive landforms

Appreciate that ecosystems have distinctive characteristics

KS4

The Challenge of Natural Hazards | The Challenge of Resource Management | Urban Issues and Challenges | UK physical landscapes- Rivers | The Living World

YEAR 10 GCSE

How have jobs and cities changed? What will they be like in the future?

Should be care about our upland areas?

Is our understanding of the world wrong?What is the development gap and what can we do about ir?

Will rainforests exist in 100 years and what will happen to our deserts?

Will the Maldives be the first climate refugees?

Why are there so many tourists and what are the consequences?

CHANGING CITIES -URBANISATION | AS COLD AS ICE - GLACIATION | UNEQUAL WORLD - DEVELOPMENT | OUR WONDERFUL WORLD | IT'S GETTING HOT IN HERE - CLIMATE CHANGE | TOURISM IS TAKING OVER

Should we protect our coastlines?

What is our weather like and why does it differ across the world?

China and India are emerging countries - is this statement accurate?

ASIA | SHAPE SHIFTERS -COASTS | WILD WEATHER AND CLIMATE | YEAR 9

Geography in year 9 truly deepens you your understanding of the world around you. You will get to grips with some of the most important issues that we face as a species and what can be done to solve them.

What issues do populations face?

Why are some earthquakes more deadly than others?

Why are some volcanoes more deadly than others?

MOVING WORLD | VIOLENT EARTH - EARTHQUAKES | VIOLENT EARTH - VOLCANOES

Continue to , hone your geographical skills and learn about the forces that shape our planet. Discover the emerging countries that are becoming huge players on the global scene

What causes extreme weather and what can we do about it?

How does the river shape the landscape and what can we do about river flooding?

What are the major problems facing our world and how can we fix them?

WORLD ISSUES | WILD WEATHER | SHAPE SHIFTERS -RIVERS | YEAR 8

AFRICA | MARVELLOUS MAPS | MY PLACE IN THE WORLD | YEAR 7

Africa is a poor continent - is this an accurate description?

What geographical skills do I need?

What is my place in the world? Local study: Is there air and noise pollution near to the school?

KS3

Your exciting Geographical journey starts here. Peak your interest in this diverse and fascinating subject and learn the geographical skills which will underpin your entire learning journey at Oathall.