ACCESS & INCLUSION LEARNING JOURNEY

SARAH BONNELL SCHOOL

We provide an environment in which all students are fully included in the life of the school, challenged to aim high and provided with a wealth of opportunities for success. We support students to help nurture independence so that they eager to learn and develop into confident young women.

Vocational courses

Further Entry Level study

GCSEs at college

A&I Calendar

YEAR 11

Functional Skills ICT: Developing ICT work area, creating a document.

ASDAN Personal, Social Development

Unit Award Art, Technology, Drama, Music

Entry Level Science: Biology, Physics, Chemistry

Entry Level Maths: Geometry and statistics, number and measure

Step up to English: Literacy, creative writing and reading

YEAR 10

Functional Skills ICT: Finding, presenting and communication information

Unit Award Art, Technology, Drama, Music

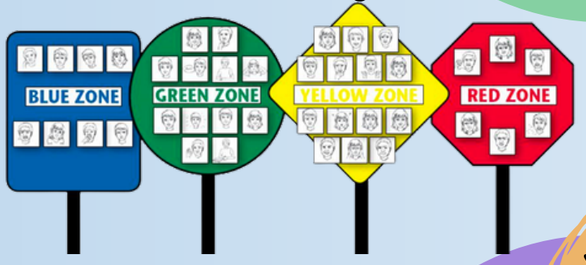
ASDAN Personal, Social Development

Entry Level Science: Biology, Physics, Chemistry

Entry Level Maths: Geometry and statistics, number and measure

Step up to English: Literacy, creative writing and reading

The ZONES of Regulation



YEAR 9

TG Literacy Supporting access to mainstream topics

TG Numeracy Supporting access to mainstream topics

TG Numeracy Supporting access to mainstream topics

TG Literacy Supporting access to mainstream topics

YEAR 8

TG Nurture Programme: Supporting the social, emotional and mental health of our students

TG Numeracy Supporting access to mainstream topics

TG Literacy Supporting access to mainstream topics

YEAR 7

Transition meetings with primary school SENCOs and families

Summer Term

- TG Transition day
- Rowling Pathway Graduation
- EHCP Annual reviews

Spring Term

- EHCP Annual reviews

Autumn Term

- EHCP Annual reviews

Weekly Intervention Sessions

- Lifeboat/ LEXIA literacy
- Mentoring and H2L counselling
- TG Fitness club
- Speech and Language groups