Dear Parent / Carer

The children have made a productive start to the spring term immersing themselves in their new expeditions.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for attending our recent SLCs. We were very proud of the children articulating their learning from the autumn term and pledging their next steps.

As we move forward into Spring 1, we have a number of events planned that we would like to inform you about. We hope that you will be able to join us at some of these events.
