

Rednock School Curriculum Strands

Subject Knowledge & Learning Skills	Character & Cultural	Well being	Literacy and Numeracy
Students study a broad and knowledge-rich curriculum that uses a variety of teaching and learning practices. This will enable students to recall and apply their subject knowledge and understanding independently.	Students are taught strategies to be resilient, self-regulated and empathetic young adults who take responsibility for their actions.	Students are taught how to keep themselves safe and develop physical and mental resilience.	Students develop fluency in reading, writing, oracy and numeracy through practise and mastery. This enables students to communicate effectively both quantitatively and qualitatively.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Subject specific lessons are sequenced to support students' learning journey taking into account prior learning and challenging all students to aim high • A comprehensive Careers Education, Information, Advice and Guidance (CEIAG) programme enables students to make informed choices about post-16 and post-18 progression routes. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Through all aspects of school life students are challenged and supported to become responsible citizens and explore new ideas and experiences. The tutor and Life Skills programmes focus on key areas of this work. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students are supported with spiritual, moral, social and cultural development (SMSC) across the curriculum. • PE lessons support students' physical development and responsibility for their own health. • Meditation workshops provide an opportunity for students and staff to practice relaxation techniques. • Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) is delivered to support lifelong learning about physical, moral and emotional development. • Fundamental British values are promoted through the SMSC provision. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A KS3 Reading programme supports the development of literacy. • A focus on disciplinary literacy within each subject area supports effective student communication.