- Lord of The Flies
- Power and Conflict anthology (AQA)

Please contact your child's English Teacher if you would like further information.

The content will be assessed entirely through external examinations. There is no longer any coursework or controlled assessment element.

What will my child learn?

- to demonstrate skills in speaking, listening, reading and writing necessary to communicate with others confidently, effectively, precisely and appropriately
- to express himself/herself creatively and imaginatively
- to become a critical reader of a range of texts, including multimodal texts, fiction and non-fiction prose, poetry and drama

- to use reading to develop his/her own skills as a writer
- to understand the patterns, structures and conventions of written and spoken English
- to understand that texts from the British Literary Heritage have been influential and significant over time, and to explore their meaning and relevance today

What enrichment opportunities are available?

- Where available, students will be given the option of seeing theatre productions of texts studied.
- Revision classes, where needed, will be put in place to support students leading up to important assessments throughout the course.

ASSESSMENT

How will my child's work be assessed?

New GCSEs, such as English Language and English Literature, will be graded 1 to 9, with 9 being the top grade. As there are no internally marked components, students can expect regular exam-style tasks that will be assessed through peer and self-assessment, as well as marked by their teacher. This will encourage students to understand the assessment requirements of each assessment objective.

AQA GCSE English Language: 100% Examination (two exams)

Paper 1: Explorations in Creative Reading and Writing. (50%; 1hr 45mins)

- Reading unseen literature text
- Descriptive or narrative writing

Paper 2: Writers' Viewpoints and Perspectives. (50%; 1hr 45mins)

- Reading one unseen non-fiction text and one unseen literary non-fiction text (one of which will be from the 19th Century)
- Writing to present a viewpoint

AQA GCSE English Literature: 100% Examination (two exams)

Paper 1: Shakespeare and the 19th Century novel. (40%; 1hr 45mins)

Paper 2: Modern texts and poetry. (60%; 2hr 15mins)

- Modern prose or drama text
- The poetry anthology
- Unseen poetry

Spoken Language

Speaking and Listening will no longer count towards the final grade in GCSE English Language. Instead, it will be recorded separately on each student's qualification certificate as an endorsement to the qualification.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

How can I support my child in this subject?

All parents will be emailed termly information about what the focus will be for their child that term. Ways to support at home will also be included.

One of the best ways to support your child is to discuss regularly what they are learning in class. Discuss the texts they are studying, asking them to describe characters, themes and the historical or social context.

How can I support my child with exams?

The Literature exams are closed book, which means students cannot take copies of the texts into the exam with them. Therefore, they need to know the texts very well. The best way to ensure this is for students to purchase their own copies of the set texts in order to highlight, annotate and turn them into a revision tool. Copies of set texts are available through the school.

There are a number of revision guides to purchase. York Notes and CGP are particularly good for supporting the study of set texts. Other revision guides can be purchased through the school.
