

Philip Anderson – brass teacher

I work full-time teaching every kind of brass instrument, piano and theory in schools throughout Gloucestershire, with over 20 years experience. I have been part of the Rednock family since 2013. I offer one to one lessons and currently I am in for two full days. I also volunteer at the Swing Band and Orchestra after school and help support students to experience and develop their ensemble playing. In my spare time I enjoy playing the euphonium and trombone and I am the principal euphonium with the City of Bristol Brass Band.

For more information about brass, piano and theory lessons please visit my website www.dursleybrass.co.uk or send me an email to dursleybrass@gmail.com.