Mr Clark—Head of PE has a place to run the London Marathon on 3rd October 2021

I have signed up for a challenge to complete the 2021 London Marathon on October 3rd to support Quest for Learning. By participating in the marathon (one of bucket list activities I wish to do) the monies raised help to disadvantaged children in education in Oxfordshire, something I feel very passionate about. I'm hoping to do more fundraising throughout the year and will keep you updated with my Strava progress. Strava link: <https://www.strava.com/athletes/4382536> Here is a link to the Virgin Money Giving page that I have set up and if you would like to support me I would be very grateful. Thank you!

Also I have included a link to the Quest for Learning website, so you can read more about the great work they do on our doorstep (they're based in Didcot). <https://www.questforlearning.org.uk/>

Since 1996, Quest for Learning has been helping to close the gap in literacy and numeracy between Oxfordshire's most disadvantaged primary-age children and their better-off peers. We believe that too many children are not fulfilling their academic potential through no fault of their own. The reasons for this are not easy to unpick: it may be because they arrived at school with only limited English, they don't have much support at home, or they miss vital teaching through illness or disruption. Sometimes, they simply don't have the confidence to engage in lessons.

Whatever the reasons, two things are clear. Firstly, if these children don't catch up with their peers by the time they leave primary school, their chances of doing so at secondary school are almost non-existent. Secondly, Quest for Learning, through our carefully designed interventions and resources, can make a real difference.
