

In order to have a fruitful conversation with your child after school, try asking the following questions:

What can you teach me about what you learned today?

How many ways did you try before it turned out the way you wanted?

What did you practise at football today?

Are you pleased with it?

What did you do that was difficult today?

What do you think will happen if...?

How did you overcome those difficulties?

Did you make any mistakes today?

How do you feel about what you did today?

What did you learn from your mistake?

What did you learn today in gymnastics?

Will you tell me about...?

How did you create that?

Can you show me...?

How did you do that?

Can you explain the difference between...?

How did you figure that out?

What did you enjoy most about your performance today?
