

Examination Invigilators (Casual hours - £10.50 / hour)

Do you have some spare time? Would you like to get a bit more involved in your local secondary school? Would you like to join the team of invigilators? We are looking for people who can follow procedures, and can be flexible and reliable.

Invigilators are the people responsible for the smooth running of public and internal exams, giving every student an equal opportunity to perform to the best of their ability and achieve their potential whilst maintaining the integrity of the exam.

Mock exams run during November and April, and the public exam series runs during May and June between the hours of 9.00am and 3.30pm. Full training will be provided.
