

This book has changed my way of thinking through a funny yet thought provoking story. It helps us realise that we are good enough just as we are (with the help of cake) and how being kind to ourselves and other makes you feel warm and fuzzy inside. Many members of my family have borrowed this book and subsequently gone out and bought it. The illustrations are reason enough to read it as the beautifully drawn pictures, along with the stains and paw prints, are a joy to look at. I would give this book 5 stars and recommend it for all ages.
