

A book to read and share with an adult.

I read this book at the start of the spring term after lockdown 3 was announced. I loved the illustrations and the messages it gave of inspiration and hope in uncertain times. It is about a curious boy, a greedy mole, a wary fox and a wise horse who find themselves together - sharing a journey. It made me think; when was I brave? What was my best discovery? However, the message of being kind is what I really want everyone to think about and act upon.
