

The dairy of Louis Lai

Dear diary,

I bet you don't know what happened today! I got some presents that I had pleaded for a long time and guess what the price was? It was free from amazon! Let me show you how they look with some photographs so that you can see.

I felt overjoyed. Well this is what happened so I was walking down in the streets and heard there was a ticket from amazon that whatever they wanted is to be free so I bought 8 tickets for my mummy, daddy sister and myself. The black lion, the red lion, the green lion, the blue lion and the yellow lion form
VOLTRON:

I look towards the future

That I will be able to get those tickets for my family!
