#ANTIBULLYINGWEEK

Woodcroft Remembers

Pupils at Woodcroft recognised Remembrance Day with a two minute silence that was impeccably observed all together on the playground.

Anti-Bullying Week 15th - 19th November

National Anti-Bullying Week is taking place next week ...

<https://anti-bullyingalliance.org.uk/anti-bullying-week/anti-bullying-week-2021-one-kind-word>

Kindness is as important today as it has ever been. Next week we shall be thinking about this in class.

Odd Socks Day

As part of Anti-Bullying Week we shall be taking part in Odd Socks Day on Monday 15th November. We encourage pupils to wear different multi-coloured socks - the crazier the better! If you want to get into the spirit of things at home then you can visit Andy's website and take part in the Badge Challenge at home. <https://andyandtheoddsocks.com/badges/>

Please bring any activities on Monday to show in assembly. Thank you

Let Your Kindness Shine and Together We Can Change Young Lives

Friday 19th November

At Woodcroft we always support Children in Need, and this year will be no different! However, due to the obvious ongoing restrictions we will not be able to run events as in previous years. We will still be hosting our annual non-uniform Pudsey dressing up day. For a £1 donation pupils do not have to wear uniform for the day.

This year's theme, Let Your Kindness Shine, will be a climax to Anti-Bullying Week so we are encouraging pupils to dress in bright colours, wear yellow and definitely anything that sparkles! They also come to school wearing their Pudsey accessories. Join in the fun and dress to let your kindness shine.

New Menus Published

Fireworks are beautiful, colourful and crazy.

Fireworks by 2H

We hope you had a great time last week enjoying all of the firework displays!

2H were inspired to think about onomatopoeia. Can you see how the words in the poem read aloud like the sound they describe?

Can you think of any other words that imitate the sound they are associated with?

Great work 2H!
