Don't forget: Please share your child participating in the activity and send it to schoolinfo@keelmansway.school.co.uk or upload to the Evidence for Learning platform where we will celebrate together

Literacy

- Can you watch the 'Chinese New Year' Makaton video on Google Classroom or you tube? Can you copy the signs from staff? Which one is your favourite?
- Log into Google Classroom and listen to the story 'The Runaway Wok'. Can you answer the questions about the story? Here is the you tube link <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1Y3I8eDPJmw>
- Read 'The Great Race' which will be on Google classroom on Wednesday of this week. Can you name some Zodiac signs?

Numeracy

- The colour of the Chinese flag is red and yellow. How many red items can you find in your bedroom? How many yellow items can you find in your kitchen? Count them and write the total down.
- <https://www.topmarks.co.uk/ordering-and-sequencing/chinese-dragon-ordering> Can you go to this website and complete the maths activities all about Chinese New Year?

Topic

- Can you taste some chinese food? What do you like the most?
- Go onto Google Classroom, and find the Zodiac sign calculator. What Zodiac sign are you? Can you post a video of yourself signing your Zodiac sign?
- Can you draw your favourite Chinese Zodiac sign?
- Can you dress in your most brightly coloured clothes? Can you watch some fireworks or traditional chinese dances on you tube?
