

Fellgate Primary School

Volume 19, Friday 5th February 2021

Dear Children, Parents, Carers and Governors,

Children's Mental Health week. So good to see our colourful children today! Both in school and at home. Please keep your doodle competition entries coming in. The doodles can be as simple or as complicated as your child wants to make them. A range of mediums can be used to decorate them but they must be colourful. For those children who are home-schooling please send a photo of your doodle via dojo or google classroom. Entries need to be in by Thursday 11th February. The winners will be announced on Friday 12th February. Please remember if you have any concerns for your child's mental health we are here to support. You can contact your class teacher, Mr McMullen, Helen or myself.

One more week to go until half term. Thank you everyone for your continued effort and support. We are so impressed with your engagement in home learning. Thank you also to the parents and carers for have contacted us for further support. We are here to help and support in any way we can. You can contact your child's teacher through class dojo, you can phone the school office on 0191 489 4801 or email school at info@fellgate.s-tyneside.sch.uk.

Our Fellgate Stars of the Week are ...

Lemons: James B for great maths work sorting shapes. Well done James!

Oranges: Elliott G is star of the week for his positive attitude and adapting to changes in his routine.

Cherries: Jasmine K for excellent practical home learning this week

Apples: Anthony T because he has shown a positive attitude to his learning this week!

Blueberries: Ethan B for expressing how he feels about the current situation really well during our Google Meet this week

Plums: Emma S for putting lots of effort into her work this week, being very helpful completing her life skills activities around the house and doing some fabulous PE exercise routines.

Acorns: Evan A for being a kind, caring and helpful friend to everyone in our class.

Maples: Joshua for his fantastic effort with home learning.

Hawthorns: Zophia G - for participating well in class and trying hard in all aspects of learning

Chestnuts: Sophie G for being extremely committed to her remote learning; she even completed work when she was feeling unwell. A huge dedication Sophie - well done!

Willows: Jake J for completing extra work to practise his handwriting

Sycamores: Lacie G because she is working so hard at home. Her work is fantastic because she tries her best at all times

Oaks: Isabella C for working tremendously hard all week independently but for seeking advice when needed.

Have a lovely weekend, stay safe Mrs Tones

Our Vision

At Fellgate Primary School, through an ethos of respect, challenge and resilience, we aspire to create an inclusive, safe, vibrant, happy school where each member of the school community - children, parents, carers, staff and governors - feels valued and are encouraged to be the best they can be.

We celebrate individuality, striving for everyone to reach their full potential and "shine" in everything they do.

Together Everyone Achieves More
