

Fellgate Primary School

Volume 27, Friday 8th April 2022

Dear Children, Parents, Carers and Governors,

As we come to the end of another challenging and busy term, We would like I would like to take the opportunity to thank all the members of our school community for their continued support.

This week our assemblies and many of our classroom activities have been focussed on Easter with our phrase of the week 'Being Hopeful'. This week we also celebrate our pupils who have made the longest journey with their learning this half term. Congratulations to you all for your efforts this term. You are amazing and we are all very proud of you!

We also celebrate our Communication Champions in memory of our friend and colleague Alison Thompson. Many Congratulations to Zac in Acorns and to Noel in Cherries for your fantastic progress!

This week we also held our annual 'Smelly Egg Competition'. There were some 'eggcelent' ideas and we had the hardest job to judge. We have some very talented, creative children at Fellgate. Many thanks to parents and families for their support too!

This terms attendance winners are Oranges and Hawthorns—well done and congratulations to both classes!

The Longest Journey Award goes to

Lemons: Arnie H for being an absolute joy in class and a popular member with his friends. Arnie has developed his positive approach and attitude towards his learning. Arnie has made great progress in all areas

Oranges: Zachary S for the progress you have made both at school and at home. You are using strategies to manage your behaviour and understand how behaviour can affect others. You are a positive role model for your peers. Within school you are able to come straight to an adult when you are asked to complete 1-1 or independent activities and you support others throughout the school day. We are so proud of you. Well done Zachary!

Cherries: Dexter M for his improved independence when completing his writing tasks and being a role model to his friends

Apples: Rebecca H-N has worked really hard this term in all areas of her learning and has made fantastic progress. She uses her PECS book more consistently to let adults know what she wants and needs. Her reading and writing have 'wowed' us all, and her Maths skills are out of this world! It's not always easy for Rebecca, because she sometimes has big emotions but doesn't have the words to express them. She is working hard to find ways to let her emotions out, so that she can get even more out of her time in school. Best of all, Rebecca has build a friendship with another child in our class and will let her friend hold her hand when she starts to get upset. We are very proud of all Rebecca has achieved!

Blueberries: Marcus M as he has made a huge improvement in his ability to talk about his emotions, and will let his teachers know how he is feeling so they can help him feel better. We are all so proud of him as we know this isn't an easy thing for him to do.

Plums: Leland F for improving his work ethic this half term and rising to challenges in every lesson

Acorns: Abigail C for always pushing herself to go the extra mile, especially with her writing, and for being a fabulous help to adults in our class.

Hawthorns: Ella C for her fantastic attitude towards all aspects of school this term. She has made fantastic progress by always putting 100% effort into her learning.

Willows: Zophia G for making a great start back at school. She has settled into the routine of Willows so well and always listens to my instructions. Her manners are fantastic and she always makes sure that her work is beautifully presented with lovely joined writing. Keep up the super effort Zophia!

Chestnuts: Ariana E for always being an amazing role model to others, great team player and shining in everything she does.

Sycamores: Amelia E for always having a smile on her face, being an enthusiastic learner and for always playing a part in Sycamore lesson discussions.

Oaks: Harley C for making such a phenomenal effort to improve his attitude and confidence in reading. It's going from strength to strength.
