Mrs Tones' phrase of the week This week we have been finding out about how Christmas is celebrated around the world. Our children have been buzzing with the new knowledge they have learnt about different cultures and comparing it to their own culture. Our phrase of the week was respecting other people's cultures.

Christmas Fair: Our Christmas Fair will take place next week on Friday 13th December! If you're having a sort out before Christmas, we kindly ask for good quality toy donations for our toy stall. Thank you for the donations we currently have – there are some amazing things! If you have any toys that your children do not play with anymore (that still have a lot of love to give), please send them in to support our school.

Facebook: Please have a look on our Facebook page to see what has happened in school this week. We have regular daily posts to share all of the wonderful things that the children are doing.

Movie Night: Thank you to our Friends of Fellgate and all of our staff for organising and supporting with Movie Night this week. The children really enjoyed it – especially all of the delicious snacks! Please look on Facebook to see lots of photos.

Upcoming Events: We have embraced Christmas here at Fellgate and we cannot wait for the wonderful celebrations over the next couple of weeks. There are a couple of important dates and times to note for next week below:
