Bears' Kitchen got broken into!*

What a mess! Who could have done it? We'd best investigate.

Let's get hunting for clues and find out who it was!

Lillie spotted a muddy footprint!

Traps were designed so that we could capture whoever the criminal was.
Great ideas!

Building work got underway.
Traps were being built.

Don't stand in this trap, the lid will close and you'll get locked in! A great idea.

Fatima found a curl of golden hair.

“Goldilocks!
She must be

CRIME SCENE

god, LOX SPILT the

POPCORN

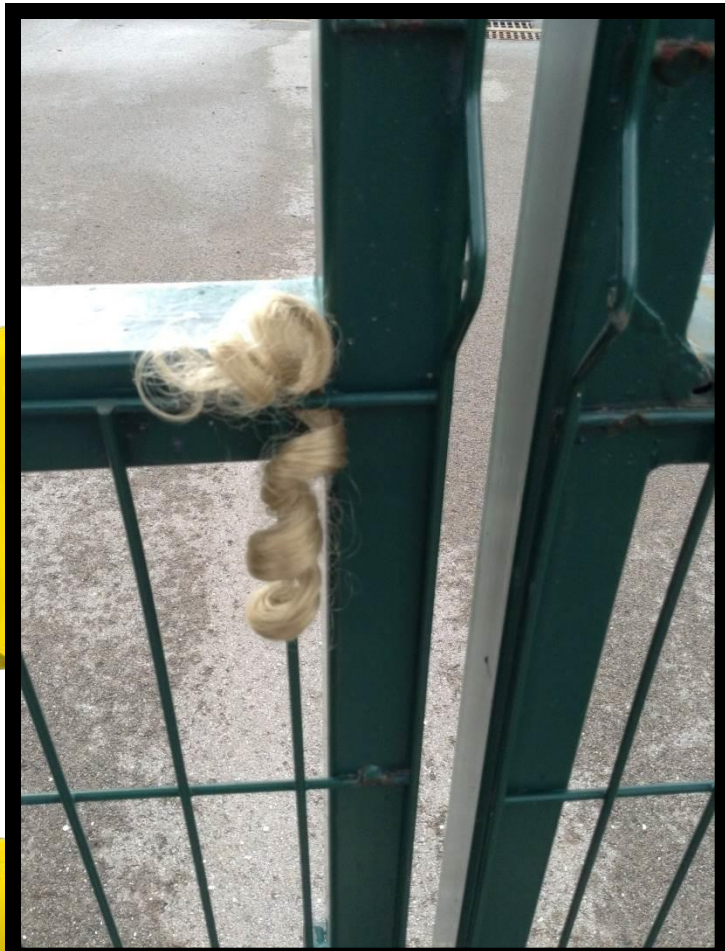

Lacie looked at the crime scene and described what she thought had happened.

We also ventured outside to see if there was any evidence to help us identify our criminal. We found a lot of porridge oats!

Emily found a coin that she thought might have belonged to Goldilocks and Buddy found what he thought was a tooth, "because Goldilocks is about the same age as us". Great detective work you two.

Another golden curl was found! This time it was on a gate.
Maybe it was an escape route.
