

Read the story up to where we got to last week.

This is the first four pages

Jack was about to have lunch when there was a knock at the door.

“Oh good,” he said, “a visitor.”

It was...

...a bear.

"I'm hungry," it said.

"Would you like an egg sandwich?" asked Jack.

Lesson 5

What do you think is going on here?

Why does the bear look like this? Is he asleep?

Does this part of the picture give you any more clues?

What is he doing with his arms?

Why do you think he is doing this?

"Bears don't eat egg sandwiches," said the bear.

Read sentence.
Why do you think bears
don't eat egg sandwiches?

What do bears eat?

What is this “ ” ?

If bears don't eat egg sandwiches, what do they eat?

Have a chat about which things you think bears eat. You might want to research this a little on the internet.

Do you know any other stories with bears in them?
What do they eat?
Here are some clues.

Lesson 6

What is Jack eating?

How do you think he feels about the egg sandwiches?

Can you think of any other words for delicious?

How many do you think he'll eat?

Will the bear eat any? Why not?
Look at his face...what is he thinking?

"I love egg sandwiches," said Jack. "I'm going to eat one."

"I know what I want for my lunch," said the bear,

"but I need a big plate."

Jack says he is going to eat one. Can you think of any other words for eat?

What does the bear want for his lunch?

Why does he need a big plate?