

Do you celebrate bonfire night?

What do you do?

Kieran – ‘We watch fireworks’.

Peach – ‘We eat pizza and ice-cream’.

Ava – ‘I do some sparklers’.

Alexa – ‘We eat warm marshmallows. We put them on a stick and hold them over the fire’.

Asa – ‘I go to my Grandma and Grandpa’s to have a hot dog and fireworks’.

Lacie – ‘We have a stick with fire on the end’.

We learnt about Guy Fawkes, King James I and the plot to blow up the Houses of Parliament.

Look at our model of the Houses of Parliament.

We know why people celebrate bonfire night.
And we know the story of Guy Fawkes is real.

Here is a bonfire
with a guy on it

These boys are making their own bonfire.

We loved doing the bonfire night activities around the classroom.

These children are making firework patterns in the shaving foam. Excellent mark making.

Look, some playdough fireworks.

This is a fabulous fire work picture

We learnt this famous poem..

Remember, remember,
the 5th of November,
Gunpowder, treason and plot.
I see no reason
Why gunpowder treason
Should ever be forgot.

We learnt when Guy Fawkes was alive, and put it on our timeline.

Guy Fawkes was born over 400 years ago

This was before Hull fair started (300 years ago), and before you were born (4 years ago).

1605

You started

Less than a year ago

We looked for clues that tell us Guy Fawkes lived a long time ago?

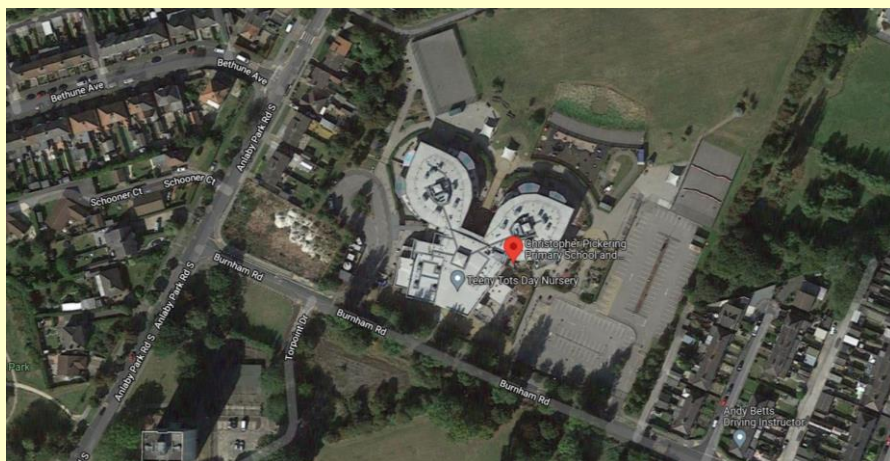

We sorted these pictures into past and present.

Now we know where the Houses of Parliament are.

Hull

London

We used Google maps to look at Hull and London

We also learnt about how important the Fire Brigade are on nights like the 5th November.

They might need to put out fires that are too big

They might put out fires caused by fireworks going the wrong way.

And we talked about keeping safe.
