

Planting

The boys and girls helped to turn over the flower beds ready for planting. We spread fresh soil on the flowerbed.

We planted the flowers in the beds and talked about what we would have to do to look after them. We watered them and made sure our friends knew that they needed to look after the plants by not standing on them.

