

Today was the first time the new children had seen Mrs Silverwood's special bag! What would be inside?

Albie saw a carton of milk and a banana. "That's for snack," he said.

Next came a piece of fabric.

Hallie had lots of ideas.

“Handbag!” “Blanket!” Then she thought a little bit more. “You put it on your clothes.” “So you don’t get sauce on it!”

She was right. Ophelia added, “It’s for cooking.”

It was Mrs Silverwood’s apron. Well done girls!

Then... “A spoon for cooking” thought Lucas. “A large spoon,” added Hallie.

“Large one for Daddy Bear,” said Cove.

2

“Medium one for Mummy,” added Katara.

3

“For Baby Bear,” realised Finnley.

The children worked out we were making porridge.

Hunter, Arlo and Alfie were very good at helping to measure the oats, milk and water. We had a full cup of each.

Everything
then needed pouring into the pan.

“Mix it,” said Hallie. But it still didn't look right.

“Cook it,” said Jax. We looked at

Jax knew it was ‘for pans’. Lucas knew,
“it make it cook.”

As it cooked the porridge became lovely and thick. It looked just right!

The children waited patiently until the porridge was ready. Not too hot. Not too lumpy. Just right!

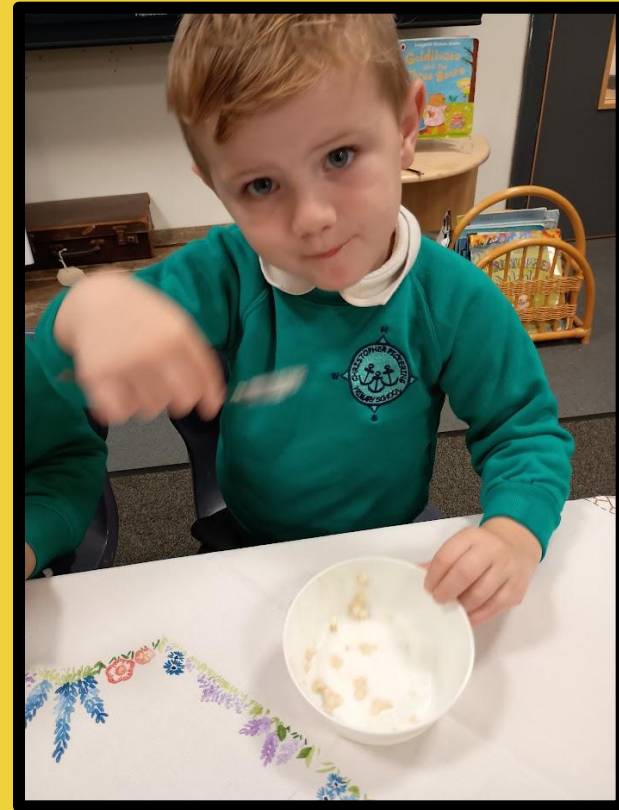

Albie liked the banana best.

Penelope thought it was too lumpy!

Arlo really liked the sugary syrup.

Poppy loved it all!

Zac, Hallie and Hunter were just like Goldilocks and ate it all up. "Can we have porridge for snack again?" asked Hallie!

May be we will!
