

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

Nursery:

Noah Jones

Noah has shown great interest and involvement in all learning. He really enjoyed our learning for Remembrance Day celebrations. Well done Noah you are a superstar!

Reception:

Olaf Zaczek

We are really proud of Olaf this week, he has tried super hard all week with his Kinetic Letters and has completed some beautiful number formation 1-3. Well done Olaf, you are a superstar!

Year 1:

Daniel Hynes

Daniel has worked well in all subjects this week, particularly in Maths and English where he has worked independently and has also offered support to his peers. He has actively used Times Tables Rock Stars and has achieved an amazing score - 1,821! Well done Daniel!

Year 2:

Sophie Train

Sophie has worked so hard this week. She has written a fantastic fairy tale in Golden Writing using the most beautiful handwriting. She has been trying her best in all subjects and has set an excellent example to others. Keep it up!

Year 3:

Keyshia Achaempong

Keyshia has read brilliantly this week. She has shown much improved fluency and has become extremely expressive when reading. Well done Keyshia!

Year 4:

Alex Hynes

What can we say about Alex's amazing Times Tables Rock Stars work this week? His score of 31,128 inspired the rest of the class to participate in their accumulated total of 59,322 - more than the other classes put together! Tremendous effort Alex and what a role model!

Year 5:

Mickey Muldoon

For a great effort to learn his spellings and his times tables this week. He scored full marks in both tests for the first time this year. Great work Mickey, keep it up!

Year 6:

Emma Wilde

Emma has worked so hard this week as we have studied fractions, she has tackled tricky challenges and helped others patiently. We are very proud of you Emma, keep up the hard work!
