

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

Nursery:

James Ward

Super learning throughout this week. James has shown great enthusiasm for our topic learning about Space and rockets. He has demonstrated sustained interest in independent learning activities producing some lovely work. Well done James, we are very proud of you!

Reception:

Rayan Montaseri

Wow! What a super week Rayan has had, he has really tried his best all week with his learning. We are super proud of Rayan's Literacy work, well done Rayan you have been a superstar!

Year 1:

Ava Mabley

Ava has demonstrated continued effort and progress in her letter and number formation at school and in her tasks that she completes at home. Ava, you always try your best—well done!

Year 2:

Savannah Ball

Savannah has worked really hard this week. She has impressed all of the grown ups in Year 2 with her reading. She has also written a fantastic postcard in our Topic lessons about a holiday to Africa. You should be very proud of how super your writing is becoming!

Year 3:

YEAR 3!

I have been astounded with the whole of Year 3 and their attitude to their home learning over the past few weeks. They have shown great dedication and commitment to their online learning tasks and have produced some amazing work. I cannot wait to share our learning together when we are back in class. Superstars!

Year 4:

Poppy Pitt

Poppy's attitude to work is outstanding. She approaches every task with enthusiasm and when she finds something frustrating, she perseveres with a smile. Her excellent sense of humour is very welcome indeed throughout these challenging times! Thanks and well done Poppy!

Year 5:

Sienna DiGianvittorio

For being so brave and walking back into school on her first day back after isolation. It is so great to see her back on her feet and with a smile on her face. We are all so proud of you Sienna!

Year 6:

Teja Read

Teja has worked incredibly hard this week with her writing, she produced some excellent pieces during the writing workshop where she chose specific vocabulary and maintained formality - well done! Keep up the hard work Teja, your writing is really improving!
