

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

Nursery:

Albie Jones

Albie has really enjoyed our learning about the Christmas story this week. Using the puppets and knitted figures, Albie confidently retold the story in detail. Well done Albie, Superstar learner!

Reception:

Taya-Roni Akporokah

Taya is such a lovely member of our Reception class, her reading is absolutely outstanding and she has written a beautiful letter to Santa this week, she used her phonics to help her write independently. Well done Taya we are really proud of you!

Year 1:

Francesca Walker

Francesca has been a super star this week as she has returned to her work with a lovely smiley face. She is an absolute pleasure to teach as she always tries her best and is always keen to share her ideas. Well done Francesca!

Year 2:

Zara Gill

Zara has blown all of the grown ups in Year 2 away with her amazing writing over the last few weeks. She has been so imaginative and descriptive and has been trying really hard. She has also used her brilliant imagination to help come up with some super ideas and actions for our Nativity and Advent liturgies each morning. Well done Zara!

Year 3:

Lola Davies

Lola has really impressed Year 3 staff with her enthusiasm in our recent topics, such as the 'Stone Age' and 'Rocks' in Science. She produced a fantastic instruction text 'How to make a fire' and recalled lots of technical vocabulary when describing properties of sedimentary, igneous and metamorphic rocks. Superstar!

Year 4:

Grace Puthussery

Grace's knowledge and understanding of Faith is an inspiration to all others in Year Four. She is a regular Bible reader and most certainly demonstrates many of the Catholic Values and Virtues in her time in school. She is able to interpret Bible stories with ease and answers high-level questions on a regular basis. Well done Grace!

Year 5:

Chloe Train

Chloe has focused her mind on the completion of all her tests and her class work this week. She has used her newly learnt skills in order to produce an informative, step by step instructional guide using modal verbs, informal language and time adverbials. Well done Chloe!

Year 6:

Thomas Wilkinson

Thomas has enjoyed using dialogue to convey characters and settings in his work this week, he has chosen vocabulary carefully to have a specific effect, well done Tom, keep up the hard work as your writing is really progressing!
