

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

Nursery:

Ella Garner

Ella has returned to Nursery with confidence and enthusiasm for her learning. She has enjoyed exploring new resources to support our Winter topic learning and continues to develop her skills in mark making and cutting out. Well done Ella - a lovely learner! We are very proud of you.

Reception:

Courtney Mills

Courtney has been an outstanding home learner! I am so super proud of the enthusiasm and effort she is putting into her learning each day. She has engaged so well with all google classroom tasks and I have loved seeing all her lovely home learning photos, each with a smile!

Year 1:

Romeo Acheampong

Romeo has participated in all online classes with enthusiasm and is very keen to answer questions. He has enjoyed learning from home and has risen to the challenge. Well done Romeo!

Year 2:

Sophie Train

For designing an amazing Charlie and the Chocolate Factory invention and working really hard at home, especially with her Maths!

Year 3:

Chloe Trainer

Chloe has tried her best to speak up and share her ideas in class, having demonstrated a newly found confidence. She also really impressed us in PE, demonstrating fabulous hockey skills, showing great control of the ball. Well done Chloe!

Year 4:

Amadeusz Kuczynski

Amadeusz has a punctual attitude in school and always shows willingness to learn. His infectious smile brings joy to the classroom. Well done.

Year 5:

Joseph Blackwell

Joey has fully engaged with live lessons this week and also tried hard with the tasks set. He has handed in his work which has been a good standard. He is a super example to others about how to learn from home.

Year 6:

Lyla Trubshaw

Lyla has been incredible this week, she was finding decimals tricky but has persevered with the topic and has completed lots of extra work which means she is now much more confident. She is an excellent example to others in the live lessons and is regularly sharing lots of work with me. Keep it up Lyla, you're doing a fantastic job!
