

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

Nursery:

Fay Robinson

Fay is an amazing home learner. Fay really enjoys all of our activities and loves to add her own ideas to extend them. She looks so relaxed and very proud on the photographs she shares with us. We are super proud of you Fay. Well done lovely learner!

Reception:

Freddie Butler

Freddie has tried so hard with all of his home learning and I am so super proud of him. Freddie joins all of our live sessions and makes a fantastic effort with all activities set. He made the most impressive space helmet and spaceship (big enough to fit in!!) and enjoyed screen-free day helping out on the farm.

Year 1:

Eva Brookhouse

Eva has tried really hard this week and has joined Google Classroom every day. She has really enjoyed Mental Health week and has been very busy baking and playing outside. Well done Eva!

Year 2:

Oliver Lockley

Oliver has been working extremely hard this week. We were so impressed by Oliver's story writing this week linked to the Cadbury advert. He tried really hard to use neat handwriting and even included speech and a simile! Well done Oliver!

Year 3:

Charlie Walters

Charlie is a super role model in class. He always follows 'COVID rules' to keep himself and his classmates safe, often reminding his peers too! He has a brilliant attitude towards his tasks, showing perseverance and grappling with problems without giving up. Charlie's writing has come on in leaps and bounds and he confidently shares ideas in class and always tries to think of ambitious vocabulary when he is explaining his ideas. We are really proud of you!

Year 4:

Angel Sony

For her infectious smile that Angel brings to the classroom every day. Angel tries her hardest at everything she does. She is also growing in confidence and understands it's okay to ask for help, proving she is a great role model to other pupils. Well done Angel and keep up the great work!

Year 5:

Eliana Khadive

Eliana is a really conscientious home learner. She takes part in every online lesson and always hands in her completed work. This week I have been particularly impressed with the book review about 'Friend or Foe' by Michael Morpurgo. Eliana listened well to the lesson about book reviews and then completed her work independently for homework to a very high standard. Great work, Eliana!

Year 6:

Sophie Bolshaw

Sophie was incredibly busy during her screen-free days this week, she baked, made a Victorian guessing game and produced some wonderful art work. We are all very proud of her, well done Sophie!
