

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

Nursery:

Elsie Butler

Elsie started Nursery on Tuesday of this week and she is already settling in really well. She made her own decision to 'come to Nursery with a happy face everyday' Well done Elsie, we are so proud of you. Superstar!

Reception:

Rayan Montaseri

Rayan has been a superstar this week! He has returned to school and completed some really fantastic learning that we are so super proud of. We are extremely proud of Rayan's maths work this week, he completed some really impressive number work! Well done Rayan keep going!

Year 1:

Lakhan Tejpal

Lakhan has had an excellent week. He returned to school with a big smile on his face and has completed all activities with enthusiasm. He has demonstrated confidence with his reading which has enabled him to move up a reading level. Well done Lakhan!

Year 2:

Daniel Hickman

Daniel has had a super first week back at school. Even though he felt a little nervous to return to school, he has turned up each day with a huge smile and tried exceptionally hard in all of his learning! He has been working especially hard in Maths! Well done Daniel!

Year 3:

Ronnie Woodman

Ronnie has made a brilliant start, returning to school with a mature attitude towards his learning. He really wants to improve, especially in his phonics and reading. It has also been noted by numerous members of staff how kind and caring Ronnie has been towards his peers, especially at break and lunch time. We are so proud of you Ronnie! Keep it up!

Year 4:

Theo Tranter

Theo has tried exceptionally hard in Maths this week, demonstrating perseverance and resilience. He has become an expert in placing decimals on a number line. Well done Theo!

Year 5:

Mickey Muldoon

Mickey really enjoyed science week and did particularly well when we created a fuel source for our contraptions. He made some excellent suggestions and observations during the investigation and then wrote a detailed and insightful report. This included a really intelligent conclusion. Well done Mickey!

Year 6:

Tegan Davies

Tegan has returned to school with such a positive attitude, she has tried her very best with all of her learning this week and asked some searching questions when we hot-seated our suspense story characters. Well done Tegan, keep up the hard work!
