

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

Nursery:

Bella Baker

Bella has been a real superstar learner this week! She really enjoyed our French Day activities. Bella successfully used French words throughout the day, created a flag, built the Eiffel Tower, danced the Can-Can and enjoyed eating and drinking French food and blackcurrant 'wine'. Well done Bella - amazing learning!

Reception:

Ekene Umensofor

Ekene has really impressed us in his Faith lessons this week, wow! Ekene is able to explain the importance of Easter in great detail, we are really proud of you. Well done for all your hard work, keep it up!

Year 1:

Katrina Ahir

Katrina has excelled in all lessons this week. Her times table recall is phenomenal and she is working really hard to form her letters correctly. She used French vocabulary to say hello and to introduce herself to the rest of the class. Well done Katrina!

Year 2:

Rahul Chaunkria

In our PSHE lesson this week, we were learning what to do in emergency situations. Rahul listened so well and learnt how to care for an injured person. He then performed an incredible role play to the class showing each step clearly and was so kind and caring to the injured actor. Well done Rahul, brilliant drama skills!

Year 3:

Liliana Espinosa

Liliana always tries her best to challenge herself during lesson time. Liliana has been working really hard to complete all of her learning during lesson time and increase the quantity of her writing. Her hard work has paid off and she is writing such amazing stories with incredible ideas! Well done Liliana!

Year 4:

Joshua Bolshaw

Joshua has worked so hard on his reading of late. He has moved up a reading stage and is able to talk about the books he is reading in great detail and with considerable enthusiasm! Well done Josh!

Year 5:

Freddie Senese

Freddie has made consistently good word and language choices in English this week, listening carefully to the text being studied and being able to infer the author's intentions. Well done Freddie!

Year 6:

Thomas Warden

Thomas has astounded Mrs Connolly with his reading progress this week, he achieved 80% in his reading test, which means he has moved to Diamond books. Well done! Keep up the hard work Thomas, it is paying off!
