

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

Nursery:

Vivienne-Leigh Barton

Vivienne has been a real superstar this week. She has demonstrated her amazing mark-making skills, creating some fabulous art work for our topic on Firefighters. Her concentration skills and attention to detail is a delight to see. Well done Vivienne, we are super proud of you!

Reception:

Keyan Ali

We are extremely proud of Keyan in Reception, he has been trying super hard for the past few weeks and has produced some fantastic learning. He has made great contributions to discussions, talking and sharing story predictions. Well done Keyan we hope you continue your fabulous learning during the final few weeks of Reception!

Year 1:

Emilie Parkes

Emilie has worked so hard this week in all subjects. She has excelled in her reading and writing and her handwriting is amazing. She is compassionate and caring towards her friends and teachers and always tries her best. Well done Emile, we are so proud of you!

Year 2:

Imogen Hadley-Samuels

Imogen has been such a superstar this week. She has moved up a reading level and she also worked so hard on Sports Day. She was really supportive to her peers in other teams and set such a great example of great sportsmanship. She also ran incredibly in our running race. Well done Imogen!

Year 3:

Clive Adjei Sarpong

Clive showed great enthusiasm and determination during Sports Day, and was a fantastic team player. Well done, Clive!

Year 4:

Archie Corcoran

Archie has demonstrated the Catholic virtues of being compassionate and loving this week. He has made sure people haven't felt left out; he has been caring and has thought of others before himself. Thank you Archie for being such a good friend to others. Well done!

Year 5:

Joseph Blackwell

Joey has worked really well to improve his spellings lately and has shown a great attitude to his learning in all areas and for representing the school in the local press. Well done Joey!

Year 6:

Brogan Harper-Smith

Brogan has worked really hard this week to learn her lines and deliver them with expression. She has also shown she can take the initiative and be caring towards her classmates, well done!
