

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

28th January 2022

Nursery:

Oliver Perks

Oliver has been a superstar this week. He has joined all of our Nursery activities with interest and enthusiasm. We are very proud of you Oliver!

Reception:

Bella Baker

We are very proud of Bella in Reception this week! She always tries her hardest and is so enthusiastic with her learning. Bella has loved our work on the colour monster this week and has produced some amazing writing. Well done, you are a superstar!

Year 1:

Freddie Butler

Freddie has been trying really hard this week! He has move up a book band! Freddie has also tried really hard this week with his sentences writing in all his lessons. Keep up the good work Freddie!

Year 2:

Noah Fonguieng

Noah is star of the week this week for being so incredibly helpful. He is always being super responsible, carrying out classroom responsibilities without even being asked. Thank you Noah, you are amazing!

Year 3:

George Dunne

George has clearly demonstrated the values of both Curious and Active this week. He has asked some great questions in Science and explored his own ideas whilst investigating friction. Well done George!

Year 4:

Connie Guy

Connie continues to shine in class. She is always kind and caring towards others, and has shown great empathy towards other members of the class if they are struggling. She is always positive and brightens everyone up with her smile and encouraging words. Well done, Connie!

Year 5:

Gràinne O'Donnell

Gràinne continues to be a fantastic role model for all the children in Year Five. She always approaches tasks with enthusiasm, even if they are a challenge; She uses fantastic manners and is a vital member of the class. Keep it up, Gràinne!

Year 6:

Eliana Khadive

Eliana impressed us this week with her effective vocabulary choices to create a historical story setting. She set the gloomy scene by using senses and synonyms to reinforce the mood, well done!
