

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

16th September 2022

Nursery:

Orion Williams

Orion has settled so well into Nursery, he is so enthusiastic about learning and will participate in everything. It has been lovely to see him grow in confidence so quickly.

Reception:

Harry Large

Harry has amazed us this week with his super number recognition skills. He has shown great confidence sharing his knowledge of two-digit numbers. Superstar Harry - we are so proud of you.

Year 1:

Heidi Davis

Heidi has settled in Year 1 so well! She has been trying hard in her lessons and tries hard to do the right things. Keep up the good work, Heidi!

Year 2:

Taya-Roni Akporokah

Taya has been a superstar this week! She sang beautifully during our whole school Mass and she has been trying super hard in all her lessons. It is so lovely to see you settling so well into Year 2, keep up the good work!

Year 3:

James Jossy

James worked extremely hard in his English learning this week, listening to feedback to improve his writing. He is always ready to start his learning and is such a role model that members of staff have commented on his good manners and kindness.

Year 4:

Samuel Allez

Sam has been a superstar since coming back to school. He is always on task and always setting an example to his peers. Keep up the great attitude to learning!

Year 5:

Liliana Espinosa

Liliana gave an impassioned pre-prepared speech to persuade others to vote for her to be the school councillor. She certainly demonstrated many Catholic Values and Virtues, but in particular that of being Compassionate and Loving to others in the school. Very well done, Liliana.

Year 6:

Theo Tranter

Theo always sets an excellent example to the rest of the class. He is hardworking, determined and curious. Well done Theo, you are a credit to Year 6. Keep up the hard work.
