

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

21st October 2022

Nursery:

Noah Gray

Noah has been trying to hard to be independent in Nursery this week. He has mastered putting his coat on by himself and packing his bag. He has even been helping the other children. Well done Noah!

Reception:

Pippa Tuckwell

Pippa has amazed us this week with her amazing learning in phonics. Well done Pippa - we are super proud of you!

Year 1:

Aaron Toro Gouveia

Aaron has had a great attitude to learning this week! He tried super hard in phonics and has been a superstar in maths. Keep up the good work.

Year 2:

Liliana Rizzo

Liliana has done brilliantly in her phonics this week. You're a superstar Lily we are very proud of you!

Year 3:

George Brereton

George always gives 100% in all aspects of his learning, which he should be super proud of. However, this week he has stood out because he has supported other pupils with their learning, explaining concepts and being extremely supportive towards pupils who may not understand. Well done George!

Year 4:

Noah Kavanagh

Noah has really improved on his work in all subjects especially maths and English. He has been speaking to the whole class with great confidence and his maths work has blown me away! Keep up the good work.

Year 5:

Jack Daly

Jack really impressed us this week with his Pilgrimage booklet in our RE lessons. He researched his area in detail and demonstrated great creativity. Well done Jack!

Year 6:

Alexander Hynes

Alex has really impressed me this week with his refugee story. He used effective vocabulary to provoke empathy in his readers. Well done Alex, an excellent Golden Write!

ST MICHAEL'S CELEBRATIONS!
