

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

11th November 2022

Nursery:

Maria Dunnett

Maria has wowed us all this week with her creativity, her thoughtfulness and her beautiful artwork. She has really looked at, and thought about, the shapes and colours needed to create her art. Well done Maria! We are so proud.

Reception:

Caden Thomas-Cain

Caden has been a real super star this week. He has amazed us with his concentration, listening intently to follow instructions successfully. Well done Caden - we are so proud!

Year 1:

Taliyah Smith

Taliyah has been a superstar this week! She has been trying so hard with all her learning. Keep up the superstar work!

Year 2:

Mason Busby

Mason always tries really hard in all of his work, and this week has had some super answers in his English work. Well done Mason we are super proud!

Year 3:

Ava Mabley

Ava has been really working hard on all aspects of her learning, which she does not always find easy. However, she keeps going and is making amazing progress in all subjects.

Year 4:

Molly Turner

Molly has been trying really hard in all her subjects but has worked especially hard in maths in her column addition and subtraction! Keep up the great work, Molly!

Year 5:

Teddy Pugh

Teddy wrote and delivered a fantastic speech about an inspirational person, Rosa Parks. He has a natural style that had everyone listening intently. He then gave constructive feedback to other members of his class. Well done, Teddy!

Year 6:

Lena Zaczek

Lena is always hardworking. She perseveres with tricky tasks and is confident enough to ask for help. She is making super progress and sets an excellent example to the rest of the class. Keep up the hard work, Lena!

ST MICHAEL'S CELEBRATIONS!

11th November 2022

Staff Governor appointment:

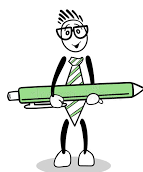

Governors are delighted to welcome Mrs Brereton as a fellow- Governor. Her appointment, after Diocesan Guidelines were followed, will bring the Local Governing Body up to strength: we know she will bring many skills and much knowledge in her new voluntary role.
