

ST MICHAEL'S STARS OF THE WEEK!

9th December 2022

Nursery:

Oliver Brookhouse

Oliver has been very helpful in the classroom this week. He has had a positive attitude and got stuck in to lots of activities. He has wowed us with his confidence to give things a go. Well done Oliver!

Reception:

Maggie Madden

Maggie has been an amazing helper in our classroom this week. She has organised her friends and her own learning with confidence. Well done Maggie, we are super proud!

Year 1:

Riley Fonguieng

Riley has been a superstar this week! She has been using Kinetic Letters in all her work. She has also been joining in with lots of class discussions. Keep up the excellent work Riley!

Year 2:

Oliver Plant

Oliver has had a really excellent week in Year 2. He has been trying super hard with his phonics not only in school but at home too! Well done Oliver.

Year 3:

Katrina Ahir

Katrina is a superstar in Year 4. She always produces neat, accurate work and she is fantastic at listening carefully to instructions. Well done Katrina!

Year 4:

Elizaveta Sandhu

Liza has been an absolute superstar this week in Year 4—particularly for her fluent reading in our guided reading lessons this week. Keep up the excellent attitude and effort Liza!

Year 5:

Luca Walker

On our choir visit to the SVP Christmas Lunch at church this week, Luca was absolutely brilliant throughout: singing beautifully and then demonstrating our virtues of being eloquence and loving when speaking to the guests. You were a great representative of our academy! Well done, Luca!

Year 6:

Conor Lawton

Conor demonstrated that he is caring and compassionate this week by looking out for others in the class. He is also working really hard to tackle decimal division, well done Conor, we are so glad you joined Year 6!
