

Science Council 2022-23

Our new Science Council members have been voted in and what a wonderful group of pupils they are already proving to be. They have all been introduced to each other and now have their own very important 'Science Council Representative' lanyards to wear to club each Thursday and when doing important jobs, helping to give students at Biddick Hall Juniors a voice for science in the school.

