

Science Council Club have looked at seasonal changes focusing on Autumn and what we are noticing happening in our surroundings.

They went on an autumnal hunt and collected some items from the school grounds and are looking for more signs of Autumn when outside school too.

As always they bring enthusiasm to club and lots of smiles.

