Half Term Workshops in Hebburn

Rainbow Crafts with The Singing Elf

Tuesday 22 Feb 2022, Drop in 10-12noon & 1-3pm
Hebburn Library, Glen Street, NE31 1AB

Rainbow Voices is a project of hope - bursting full of colourful crafts. The whole family can get creative whether you already love getting crafty or want to try something new. Our easy to make, bright and uplifting crafts are ideal to 'bring back the rainbow' to your windows and decorate your home with hot air balloons, hearts and rainbows.

African Drumming with Mark Barfoot

Wednesday 23 Feb 2022, 5-6pm Families (age 6+) / 6.15-7.15pm (age 12+ and Adults)

Hedley Community Hall, Argyle Street, NE31 1BP
To book visit www.theculturalspring.org.uk

Try out the West African Djembe Drums in these interactive music sessions. You will learn how to make the main Djembe sounds, play traditional rhythms, have fun and try something new! Mark will also perform a short Handpan performance in the session.

My Town with Sue Loughlin

Friday 25 Feb 2022, Drop in 10-12noon & 1.30-3.30pm
Hebburn Library, Glen Street, NE31 1AB

Come along and design your own imaginary town. Using a range of drawing and collage materials you can create a town for kids where the first priority is fun! What would you like to see in your town? A water park, rollercoaster, beach, zoo, zip-line, skate park? All you need is your imagination for this fun drop-in workshop for families and children of all ages.
