Read some poems here is a link: 26 Fun Poems about Animals and Pets for Children Explore the poems, read a few with your adult, choose your favourite and see if you can learn it off by heart. Practise saying it to your adult or even your pet or soft toy!	Tell us about your favourite poem from the website you went on for your reading task. Write the title of the poem and explain why you liked it, was it the subject matter? The adjectives? Did it make you laugh? Don't forget to use capital letters and full stops in your sentences. Purple mash 2do set.	Follow this link to be taken to BBC bitesize. Watch the video and complete some activities all about position and direction on the football pitch! I know we have some budding footballers in year 2 so give this one a try! https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/zmdr92p If you don't have access to the internet then draw your own football pitch and add two teams of footballers. Describe their position by using words like: behind, in front, turn, right, left, ½ turn, ¼ turn, full turn etc...	Whole School - Choose a Book! You helped us to raise money on our sponsored walk around Biddick Hall and now we need your help to choose new books for our school. Visit the website https://www.lovereadng4kids.co.uk/ Find a book you would like to have in your class. Email your name, the title and author of the book to office@biddickhallinfants.co.uk In the subject bar type - Choose a book

Roald Dahl wrote a book called Revolting Rhymes. Read this rhyme, it is long so it may take you a couple of days.

The Three Little Pigs By Roald Dahl, Famous Funny Poem

Can you see the story hiding in the poem? Did it make you laugh? What was revolting about it?

Handwriting practise - now all you need is paper and a pencil:

Practise the following top exit joins to "

we, oe, re

*the font shown here, is not the best example make sure you bring the top exit join from the first letter down a bit to start your 'e'. There should not be a gap between a letter and an 'e'.

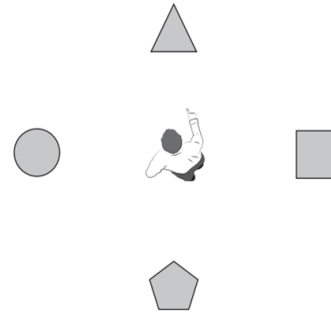

Now practice writing these words using the joins you have just practiced:

went, toe, are

Write each word three times.

Remember to ensure they all stand on the line.

20 Sam is pointing at the triangle.

He turns a half turn.

Tick the shape Sam is pointing at after the half turn.

Tell me which shape he is pointing at after the turn on Purple Mash. Tip: pretend you're Sam facing the triangle, complete a half turn, where are you now?

*There are also two games about position and direction set for you as 2do's on purple mash.

This week it would have been art week in school. Follow this link to watch a clip about a famous artist called Vincent Van Gough. <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zdyr87h>

Here are some examples of his work...

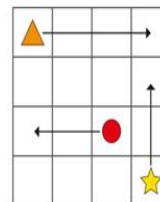

Can you draw or paint a starry night or vase for sunflowers?

Read these words with /i/ in: (i, ui, e and y) biscuit, mist, mystery, build, locket, and kitchen. Remember to say the sounds as you read the word!
How do you spell /i/ in these words?
Write them into categories on a piece of paper according to how you spell /i/.
Say the sounds as you write the words.

Parents: ask your child to read these sentences OR read these sentences to your child:
The builder dropped his biscuit and lost it, what a mystery! Ask your child to write these sentences and underline the different ways we spell /i/. If your child misspells one of the words in bold, help them to write it again correctly. REMEMBER TO SAY THE SOUNDS AS YOU WRITE THEM - IT HELPS THE LEARNING TO STICK!

1 The arrows show where the shapes are moving to on the grid.

Use the word bank to help you complete the sentence for each shape.
