

My Reading Network

Where reading lives and who you share it with.

Reading on My Own

- Explore how words & pictures work together in a comic or graphic novel.
- Dip into an article in a magazine or newspaper.
- Listen to an audiobook. Did you choose fiction or non-fiction?
- Re-read an old favourite. What did you notice?
- Can you find the same text in print and digital form? Which did you prefer?

Me as a Reader

- I like reading when...
- I don't usually enjoy...
- I prefer reading...
- I'd like to read more...
- A recent reading moment...

Reading with Family

- Ask someone to share their favourite read when they were your age.
- Share a poem, article or comic page together and talk about it.
- Browse a newspaper, website or magazine together and swap interesting finds.
- Listen to an audio story together.
- Share what you're each reading now. What other choices have you read recently?

Reading with Friends

- Recommend something new to a friend. Why might they enjoy this choice?
- Talk about something you've read recently.
- Read the same short text together and compare your reactions/ opinions as readers.
- Ask someone what they are reading/ listening to.
- Share your favourite moment from a recent read.
- Make a quick shared list of recommended reads.

Reading Online

- Read an online article or blog. Do you trust the source? Why or why not?
- Explore online reading recommendations (BookTok, reviews, apps).
- Listen to a spoken text online - audiobook, interview or podcast.
- Watch a book review online.
- Share an online recommendation for a recent read.

Reading in the Community

- Visit your local library or bookshop and browse new releases.
- Borrow or browse a non-fiction text recommended by an adult.
- Notice where reading appears in your local community (signs, posters, leaflets).
- Take part in a reading event, in person or online.
- Explore how libraries support different readers.
