Charlie and the chocolate factory extract

Charlie Bucket stared around the big room in which he now found himself and The place was like a witch's kitchen and All about him black metal pots were boiling and bubbling on huge stoves, and kettles were hissing and pans were sizzling, and strange iron machines were clanking and spluttering, and there were pipes running all over the ceiling and walls, and the whole place was filled with smoke and steam and delicious rich smells. mr wonka himself had become even more excited than usual and anyone could see that this was the room he loved best of all and He was hopping about among the saucepans and the machines like a child among his Christmas presents He lifted the lid from a pot and took a sniff and then he rushed over and dipped a finger into a barrel of yellow stuff and had a taste and then he skipped across to one of the machines and turned half a dozen knobs and then he peered anxiously through the glass door of a big oven, rubbing his hands and cackling with delight at what he saw inside.
