

Year 4 home learning 12.6.2015

Due Wednesday 17th June

Literacy

Next week we will create the book, 'Our Rights at Brooklands Farm'.

Over the weekend you need to continue to practise using powerful language to give a clear message. Use the sheet to write additional rights for pets as we were in class, or you could create your own powerful messages for something you are passionate about.

e.g. Everyone at Brooklands has the right to feel connected and must know who to connect with when their wellbeing is low. Using protective hands reminds us of who these people are and keeps our community connected.

Success criteria:

I have used imperative verbs

I have used interesting connectives

I have varied my sentences (ing or ly)

I have used the present tense

Spellings

1. impatient
2. irregular
3. invasion
4. therefore
5. misspell
6. redecorate
7. collision
8. autobiography
9. consequently
10. architecture

Reading

Please continue to read to an adult at least three times a week and use the reading comprehension question to test your understanding.

Maths

Have a go at the word problems using RUCSAC to identify the operation. They are about fractions and money which we will work on next week.

Have a great weekend!
