

Answers - Famous Journalist:

1. He has a sensitive and understanding manner
2. She fled war and then went on to work in war zones
3. She discovered a huge story in her first week on the job
4. She continued to work in war zones and became a well-respected journalist through hard work

V: Fearless

R: Clare Hollingworth

R: On the border with Poland

V: A big story

S: They were both war reporters

Answers - Journalism In War Zones:

1. 2001
2. William Howard Russell
3. Florence Nightingale
4. Alfred Lord Tennyson
5. The Charge Of The Light Brigade

S: Accept answers that show she believed that they were vitally important and that their role was to report honestly and accurately from the front line. She believed that they needed to work out when to be brave and when not to be foolish

S: They help to give people factual information about what is going on, how people are being treated and what can be done to help

V: Hinder

V: Communicate with / talk to

I: Journalists are still being killed and arrested in war zones

Answers - News Report - Radio:

1. John
2. A pig
3. In a shed
4. £20
5. The Dog And Duck Dynamo

I: He keeps getting his name wrong

V: You try to persuade them to do it

V: Entrepreneur

I: Road works on Muddled Lane will stop them getting into the village

S: The football team won in the FA Cup, Hattie Crumble won the darts and Colin Croake won the vegetable competition

Answers - News Report - TV:

1. Host
2. Lining the streets
3. People who watch an event
4. Increase in sales
5. Purchases

S: The people turning up to watch the football match often caused trouble on the Friday before kick off. The police started referring to it as a “black” Friday because it was a dark day of behaviour

R: Thanksgiving Day

R: The Army and the Navy

S: They often aren't that good a deal

I: Donnie

Answers - Pulitzer Prize:

1. Esteemed
2. Deemed
3. It is made to seem better or worse/bigger or smaller than it is
4. Nobody is telling them what to publish
5. Something that somebody in power does that they shouldn't be doing

R: 1912

R: Joseph Pulitzer

I: Pulitzer left them a lot of money to open a new school of journalism

R: Journalists from the Tampa Bay Times

S: They have to produce a piece of journalism of exceptional quality