

Santa's Stuffy Situation

11 "I've had it!" screamed Santa as he ripped off his heavy
22 red jacket lined with fluffy, white fur. "This suit is just 33 too stuffy! How can I be expected to deliver presents to 44 hot countries when I feel like I'm a turkey roasting in 46 the oven?"

56 Out of the corner of his eye, Santa spotted something.
67 There, on the beach of Australia's Gold Coast, was a gift
75 shop selling the most magnificent shirts with Christmas
86 print all over them. "Ho, ho, ho! I've got it!" Santa
94 shouted with joy, running towards the shop with
99 a bag of golden coins.

Questions

1. Find and copy two adjectives the author uses to describe the fur on Santa's jacket.

- _____
- _____

2. Where is this story set?

3. Why do you think Santa was feeling too hot in his red jacket?

4. What do you think Santa did next?

Santa's Stuffy Situation

11 "I've had it!" screamed Santa as he ripped off his heavy
22 red jacket lined with fluffy, white fur. "This suit is just 33 too stuffy! How can I be expected to deliver presents to 44 hot countries when I feel like I'm a turkey roasting in 46 the oven?"

56 Out of the corner of his eye, Santa spotted something.
67 There, on the beach of Australia's Gold Coast, was a gift
75 shop selling the most magnificent shirts with Christmas
86 print all over them. "Ho, ho, ho! I've got it!" Santa
94 shouted with joy, running towards the shop with
99 a bag of golden coins.

Answers

1. Find and copy two adjectives the author uses to describe the fur on Santa's jacket.

fluffy
white

2. Where is this story set?

This story is set on the Gold Coast in Australia.

3. Why do you think Santa was feeling too hot in his red jacket?

Pupils' own responses, such as: I think his red jacket was too thick and better suited for colder weather.

4. What do you think Santa did next?

Pupils' own responses, such as: I think Santa went to the shop and bought an outfit he would feel cooler in.