UCL East - Saturday Club - Writing and Talking – for years 9 – 11 – Starts November – Closing 24th October

Beginning in November 2025, the Club offers the opportunity to try out a wide range of forms of written and spoken expression.

Participants will learn how to think creatively, work with others and express ideas through words, sounds, performance and more. The club provides the chance to try creative writing, journalism or debating, learn about the language of the law, express yourself in poetry and performance and get inspired by writing and speech from different times and places. The club runs 10:00-13:00 @ at UCL's Marshgate building on the Olympic Park on Saturdays and runs until May 2026.

The National Saturday Club – Join today - Applications now open – for ages 13–16

The National Saturday Club (NSC) gives 13–16-year-olds the opportunity to study subjects they love at their local university, college or cultural institution, for free. The NSC year commences with the London Visit, where Club members from across the country come together for the first time to see their self-portraits on display at Central Saint Martins and attend specially arranged tours of some of the UK's leading cultural institutions. In addition to weekly Saturday sessions delivered by expert tutors, the arrival of the spring term brings with it the unique experience that is a NSC Masterclass. To conclude the year and celebrate their achievements, Club members exhibit their work at London's prestigious Somerset House, as part of the annual Summer Show. Clubs are available in; Art & Design, Craft & Making, Fashion & Business, Film & Screen, Performance & Theatre, Science & Engineering, Society & Change and Writing & Talking.
