Post-16 Pathways: What This Means for Year 11 Students Wednesday 21 October 2026 | 4.00pm to 5.00pm | Online

As the post-16 qualifications landscape continues to change, it is increasingly important that young people and their families understand the different options available after GCSEs and have access to clear information early enough to make informed choices.

The webinar will provide a straightforward overview of the post-16 landscape, including A Levels, T Levels, V Levels, BTECs and other applied qualifications, and apprenticeships. We will also explain the national reforms to qualifications, how these may affect future choices, what young people should consider when choosing a pathway, and the support available to them.

The event is being delivered online through a Teams Town Hall, making it easy for families to join from home. Attendee details will not be visible to other attendees, and parents and young people will have an opportunity to submit questions.
