

Why we teach MFL

Learning a foreign language at ACS:

- Experience/become sympathetic to other cultures
- Develop your confidence in speaking
- Develop listening skills
- Express yourself in another language in speaking and writing
- Be able to communicate with speakers of another language
- Open employment opportunities both in the UK and abroad
- Having a language “gives you the edge”
- Develop a better understanding of the world around us/other cultures in a multi-cultural society
- Develop social skills
- Develop a deeper understanding of how language works/enhance your command of the English language at the same time