

Cambridge National Level 2 Health & Social Care

What is it all about?

Health and Social Care Level 2 is designed to develop your knowledge and understanding of....

Factors that affect the way humans grow and develop

How do you become you?
Developing a sense of identity.

How can having a supportive family affect the development of children?

What are the effects of abuse?

What are the physical changes that our body goes through from 0-65?

Health, social care and early years services and professionals available in the community.

Social services

Nurses

Day care centres

GPs

Speech and language therapists

Pre-schools

Cambridge National Level 1/2 Health and Social Care

Year 10 Mandatory Units	Assessment
R021: Essential values of care for use with individuals in care settings	Written paper 1 hour 30 OCR moderated
R022: Communicating and working with individuals in health, social care and early years settings	Coursework Internally assessed
Year 11	Two units of coursework Internally assessed

Why choose Health & Social Care?

I chose health and social care because I enjoy completing coursework

I chose health and social care because I want to be a nurse.

I chose health and social care because I enjoy researching.

I chose health and social care because it sounded interesting.

Characteristics of students who do well in health and social care:

Interested in the subject

Respectful towards their peers and members of staff

Committed to the subject

Complete all classwork and coursework to the highest standards.

What can this course lead to?

Level 3
Cambridge
Technical Health and Social Care

A Level
Psychology

A Level
Sociology

And more...

What do H&SC students study at university?

- BSc Health and Social Care
- BSc Psychology
- BA Social Work
- BSc Child Nursing

• Health and Social Care is a vocational qualification.

This means that it aims to give you the knowledge and skills necessary in a particular type of career.

What careers can H&SC lead to?

There are a huge variety of professional careers, occupations and further and higher university courses that studying health and social care can lead too, including:

- degrees in social sciences and related subjects,
- careers in nursing, midwifery,
- teaching,
- social work,
- counselling,
- youth work.

OCR Cambridge National Health & Social Care