Series Spotlight: Agent Zaiba Investigates

Author Annabelle Sami's mystery series follows Zaiba, who is determined to be the world's greatest detective, and is always on the lookout for a crime to solve. She knows everything there is to know about running an investigation – in theory... In the first book The Missing Diamonds, she and her friends must track down a missing treasure that goes missing at her cousin's Mehndi party. In The Poison Plot, a headteacher is poisoned during the school cake competition, and in The Haunted House, strange things seem to be happening in the home of a new family that has moved to town...

Annabelle says she was inspired to write the books by 'all the mystery TV shows and books I enjoyed when I was younger - even things like Goosebumps!' Great for fans of the Murder Most Unladylike series, The High Rise Mystery and The Famous Five!

Mental Health Awareness Week

Mental Health Awareness Week is from 10th-14th May this year. Mental health problems can affect anyone, at any time - the Mental Health Foundation believes that mental health is everyone's business. You can pick up a recommended reading list of fiction and non-fiction from the library, featuring books that can offer advice and reassurance.

STUDENT BOOK REVIEWS!

Percy Jackson and the Titan's Curse

'I enjoyed this book even better than the Harry Potter books. Percy is a strong character throughout the book, and his emotions change from suffering and anger' Vihaan Vansola, 8Q
