I. Curriculum aims

Our curriculum aims to:

- Provide a broad and balanced education for all students that is coherently planned and sequenced towards cumulative knowledge for skills for future learning and employment
- Enable students to develop knowledge, understand concepts and acquire skills, and be able to choose and apply these in relevant situations
- Support students' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development
- Support students' physical development and responsibility for their own health and wellbeing, and enable them to be active and safe
- Instil a passion for learning
- Ensure equal access to learning for all students, with high expectations for every student and appropriate levels of challenge and support, especially vulnerable and disadvantaged students and those with disabilities and special educational needs (SEND)
- Have a high academic ambition which will enable every student to achieve the best possible examination results
- Equip students with the knowledge and cultural capital they need to succeed in life
- Provide subject choices and pathways that support students' learning and progression, and enable them to work towards achieving their goals at Key Stage 4 and beyond
- Develop students' independent learning skills and resilience, to equip them for further/higher education and employment
- Encourage high rates of attendance and punctuality
- Nurture every student to become a successful adult who will impact positively on their local community and society as a whole
- Embrace all cultures and beliefs as well as promote British Values and recognise the importance of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance
- Provide high-quality, impartial careers guidance which prepares students for success in the next stage of education, training or employment for adult life
- Enhance the literacy of our students
- Provide a range of in-school extended learning activities and after-school clubs

2. Legislation and guidance

This policy reflects the requirements for academies to provide a broad and balanced curriculum as per the Academies Act 2010.

It also reflects requirements for inclusion and equality as set out in the Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice 2014 and Equality Act 2010, and refers to curriculum-related expectations of governing boards set out in the Department for Education's Governance Handbook.

This policy complies with our funding agreement and articles of association.

3. Roles and responsibilities

3.1 The governing board

The governing board will monitor the effectiveness of this policy and hold the headteacher to account for its implementation.

The governing board will also ensure that:

- A robust framework is in place for setting curriculum priorities and aspirational targets
- The school is complying with its funding agreement and teaching a "broad and balanced curriculum" which includes English, maths, and science, and enough teaching time is provided for students to cover the requirements of the funding agreement
- Proper provision is made for students with different abilities and needs, including children with special educational needs (SEND)
- All courses provided for students below the age of 19 that lead to qualifications, such as GCSEs and A levels, are approved by the secretary of state
- The school implements the relevant statutory assessment arrangements
- It participates actively in decision-making about the breadth and balance of the curriculum
- Students from year 8 onwards are provided with independent, impartial careers guidance, and that this is appropriately resourced

3.2 Headteacher

The headteacher is responsible for ensuring that this policy is adhered to, and that:

- All required elements of the curriculum, and those subjects which the school chooses to offer, have aims and objectives which reflect the aims of the school and indicate how the needs of individual students will be met
- The amount of time provided for teaching the required elements of the curriculum is adequate and is reviewed by the governing board
- They manage requests to withdraw children from curriculum subjects, where appropriate
- The school's procedures for assessment meet all legal requirements
- The governing board is fully involved in decision-making processes that relate to the breadth and balance of the curriculum
- The governing board is advised on whole-school targets in order to make informed decisions
- Proper provision is in place for students with different abilities and needs, including children with SEN

3.3 Other staff

Other staff will ensure that the school curriculum is implemented in accordance with this policy.

- Deputy Headteacher (Curriculum)
- TLLs/Heads of Subject

4. Organisation and planning

In Year 7 and 8 students are taught a common curriculum of Art, Computing, Design & Technology, Drama, English, Geography, History, Maths, Music, Religious Studies, Science, and Sport and Health. There is the opportunity to study one of two Modern Foreign Languages: French or Spanish. All students in Year 7 and Year 8 also follow an Enrichment curriculum which enables students to explore the wider curriculum with a focus on developing skills of communication, problem solving, confidence and self regulation.

At the end of Year 8 students choose to specialise in one of the following practical subjects: Food, Graphics, Product Design or Textiles.

During Year 9 students choose their KS4 options. New subjects include Business, Sociology, Psychology and Health & Social Care. Students with a good grasp of Gujarati can also choose to study GCSE Gujarati.

In KS5, a wide range of qualifications are offered. These include AS Levels and A Levels, Applied and Technical Level 2 and Level 3 qualifications.

All KS5 students who have not achieved GCSE Grade 4 in English or maths repeat these subjects.

PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and Economic Education) is delivered by form tutors during form time and by subject teachers through the curriculum. The PSHE programme includes aspects of Careers, Relationship and Sex Education and Citizenship. Specific issues relevant to the school's cohort are delivered by external providers through drop down days. Both Equality Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) and Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural (SMSC) education are also delivered across the curriculum and through PSHE and assemblies. A programme of extra curricular activities complements the school's curriculum offer.

All subjects have a defined long term curriculum plan which provides an overview of the year, this is supplemented by medium term plans and lesson plans which are maintained in schemes of learning. Details of the school's full curriculum offer are available on the school website.

5. Inclusion

Teachers set high expectations for all students. They will use appropriate assessment to set ambitious targets and plan challenging work for all groups, including:

- More able students

- Students from disadvantaged backgrounds
- Students with SEND
- Students with English as an additional language (EAL)

Teachers will plan lessons so that students with SEND can study every subject, wherever possible, and ensure that there are no barriers to every student achieving.

Teachers will also take account of the needs of students whose first language is not English. Lessons will be planned so that teaching opportunities help students to develop their English, and to support students to take part in all subjects.

Further information can be found in our statement of equality information and objectives, and in our SEND policy and information report.

6. Monitoring arrangements

Governors monitor whether the school is complying with its funding agreement and teaching a “broad and balanced curriculum” which includes the required subjects, through: Governor Meetings, Governor in School Days and meetings with Curriculum Leaders.

Curriculum leaders monitor the way their subject is taught throughout the school by: curriculum planning meetings, observations, learning walks, book scrutinies and student voice.

Curriculum leaders also have responsibility for monitoring the way in which resources are stored and managed.

This policy will be reviewed every two years by the Curriculum & Standards Committee. At every review, the policy will be shared with the full governing board.
